Farewell Presentation to Thomas on his Retirement

ADDRESS

Thomas Courtenay Colonsheer

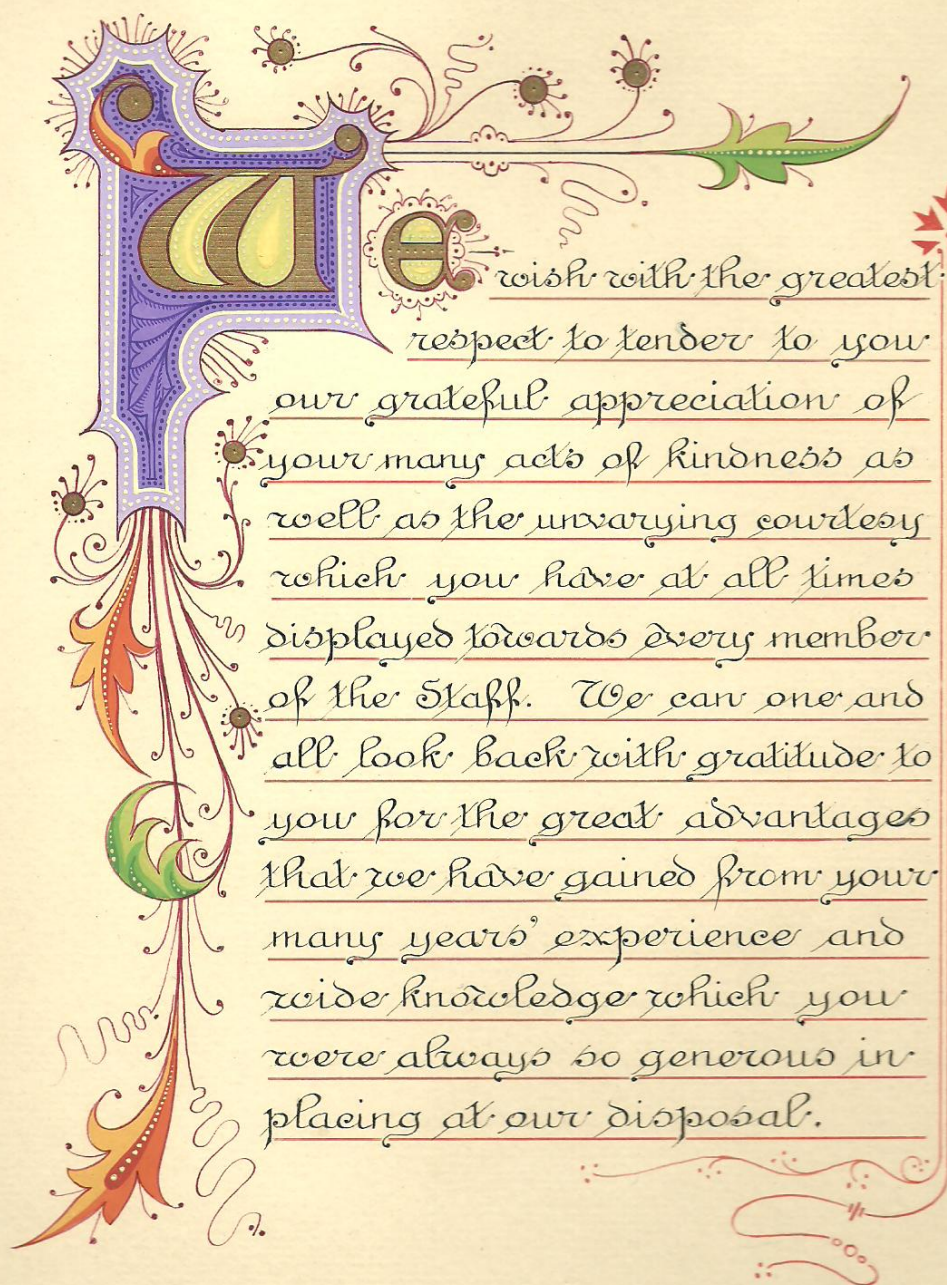

Esq. F.S.I.

Dear Sir,

We, the undersigned Members of the Staff of the Firm of Messrs. Townshend and Dickinson desire to place on record our deep regret on the occasion of your retirement from active participation in its business, and our heartfelt wish that you may be long spared to enjoy that rest which you have so fully earned.

The page features a large, ornate initial 'W' in purple and gold, and a smaller initial 'E' in gold. Both letters are decorated with intricate floral and scrollwork patterns in various colors including purple, gold, green, and red. The text is written in a black Gothic script on a cream-colored background, with red horizontal lines marking the baseline. The text is enclosed in a simple red rectangular border.

We wish with the greatest respect to tender to you our grateful appreciation of your many acts of kindness as well as the unvarying courtesy which you have at all times displayed towards every member of the Staff. We can one and all look back with gratitude to you for the great advantages that we have gained from your many years' experience and wide knowledge which you were always so generous in placing at our disposal.

All join in praying that the great Giver of all good gifts may grant that you may be long spared to your family and friends in health and happiness.

Yours faithfully,

J. V. Shellard.
