

Thomas Loftus Uniacke Townsend [5C02]

Fairyfield House, Kilmallock

Photograph of a collage/watercolour of Fairyfield House, done by Thomas' daughter, Theodosia, who is seated on the donkey. The dachshund in the picture is 'Max', said by Theodosia to be the first dachshund in Ireland, brought to Castle Townshend by Madame de Bunsen, Charles Loftus's Townshend's [5C00] mother-in-law.

Harriet's pastel 'Seated Girl in a Blue Dress with Flowers'

The front cover image of the National Gallery catalogue "Irish women artists: from the 18th century to the present day" in 1987.

