

Marriage to Charles Alexander Blow

VEIL WORN BY HER GREAT-
GRANDMOTHER

Eston Wedding of Miss M. Townsend

NORTHUMBERLAND BRIDEGROOM

The wedding took place in Christ Church, Eston, yesterday, of Mr. Charles Alexander Blow, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blow, Westbourne, Longbenton, Northumberland, and Miss Margaret Annette Townsend, only daughter of the late Dr. Francis E. Townsend and Mrs. Townsend, Killora, Normanby.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Prof. E. R. Townsend, Cork, and of the late Mr. Francis E. Steavenson, for many years Town Clerk of Darlington. Her two elder brothers, lieutenants in the 5th Durham Light Infantry, were killed in the War.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Blow (twin sister of the bridegroom), Miss Marjorie Blow, Miss Joan Grace and Miss Molly Lace. Mr. J. Bower Fox was best man. The ceremony was performed by two former vicars of Eston, the Rev. G. A. Hervev, rector of Crathorne, and the Rev. E. C. Lace, Vicar of Appleton Roebuck and Rural Dean of Ainstey.

VEIL WORN BY GREAT-GRAND-MOTHER

The bride, who was given away by her cousin, Mr. Douglas Cumming, wore a gown of pearl lustre satin, cut with a train over which flowed a veil of old Brussels lace, once worn by her great-grandmother and now one of the gifts from the bride's mother. Her halo was of crystal beads and satin, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore picturesque gowns of palest rose net over satin, with haloes of satin and net trimmed with silver. They carried bouquets of anemones.

Mr. S. P. Steavenson, of Hurworth-on-Tees, Mr. Cecil Dove, of Middlesbrough, and Dr. J. Watson Ridley, of South Bank, acted as groomsmen. The organist was Mr. J. W. Pickard.

After the reception the couple left for a motoring honeymoon in the South. The bride's travelling dress was a tailored frock of blue rivoli, with pony skin coat and hat to tone.
